

RECOGNITION CEREMONY AND RECEPTION

1999 OPM DIRECTOR'S AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROGRAMS

What: A public recognition ceremony for recipients of the 1999 OPM Director's Award for Outstanding ADR Programs followed by a reception for all attendees. Attorney General Janet Reno will be the keynote speaker. At the same time, OPM will release the revised and expanded OPM issuance, Alternative Dispute Resolution: A Resource Guide. Copies will be made available at the event for anyone attending.

When: 9:30 a.m. on July 27, 1999

Where: Ceremony: Alan K. Campbell Auditorium
Reception: Room 1350 (following ceremony)
1900 E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

Who's Invited: All individuals who are involved in, will be involved in, or are interested in, the resolution of Federal workplace disputes; agency Dispute Resolution Specialists; Directors of Agency Legal Offices and legal staff; Directors of Personnel and other human resources staff; Directors of Equal Employment Opportunity and EEO specialists; management and union officials; members of agency labor relations partnerships; National Partnership Council members; and ADR Award nominees and recipients.

Why Come: This is an opportunity to hear the Attorney General of the United States talk about a very important subject and to meet and talk with key program officials involved in setting up and administering Federal agency ADR programs and others who are experts in the field of dispute resolution. It is also an opportunity to learn more about other programs and ADR resources as covered in OPM's ADR Resource Guide (copies of this 200-page issuance will be provided to all attending the event). The Guide contains more than 100 summaries of agency ADR programs, alternative discipline programs, shared neutrals programs, and administrative agency programs. It also provides selected training sources information, ADR-related Internet WEB sites, and bibliography.

Information: For more information, please contact the Employee Relations and HealthServices Center of the Office of Workforce Relations at OPM by telephone at (202) 606-2920 or by email at er@opm.gov.
